GREAT IRISH DEMONSTRATION DEC. 11

Arrangements for Chicago's greatest Irish demonstration are practically completed. December 11th is to be known in Chicago as "Irish Night." On that date four great gatherings of Chicago citizens of Irish ancestry will be held. The South Side, the West Side, and the North Side each is expected to hold gatherings whose only limit will be the capacity of the four great halls which have been engaged for the event. These are: The White City ball room and casino, 63rd street and South Park avenue; the Second Regiment Armory, Madison and Rockwell streets, and Arcadia Hall, near Wilson avenue.

Dancing, both Irish and American, will be the main feature of "Irish Night." The demonstration is to be under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the A. O. H. with the cooperation of the Friends of Irish Freedom, the United Irish Societies, the Small Nations League, the Friends of the Irish People and the Committee of One Hundred for an Irish Republic. John J. Geraghty, county president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, has charge of the affair. He is assisted by an able and active committee representing the organizations mentioned.

Members of other races in sympathy with Ireland's cause are expected to show by their presence their desire for Irish liberty. Offers of cooperation and aid have been received from representatives of several races, including all of the small nations which have recently attained their liberty. Tickets for the dance and demonstration are good at either of the four halls. Prominent speakers will make short addresses during an interval of the dancing, in advocacy of the purchase of bond certificates of the Irish Republic.

Professor J. F. Connelly, of the University of Chicago, president of the Chicago Council, Friends of Irish Freedom, will lead the grand march at the White City Casino, with Mrs. Anna E. Johnson, state president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H. Hon. James A. Kearns, clerk of the Municipal Court, will be chairman of the reception committee. At the ball room, White City, the grand march will be led by Judge John P. McGorerty and Miss Agnes A. Delaney. Former Congressman George E. Gorman will be chairman of the reception committee. These dances will be under the general direction of Dr. George P. Kerrigan and William McMahon.

Robert M. Sweitzer, with Mrs. Thomas R. Judge, will lead the grand march at the Second Regiment Armory. Joseph A. O'Donnell will be chairman of the reception committee. General director, Thomas R. Judge.

YOU AUTOIST— What Will You Do?

January 1st, 1920, a new law goes into effect requiring every garage owner to keep a record of the license and engine number, name and address of the owner and person delivering or taking a car for the purpose of repairs, selling, rental, livery or storage. The penalty for failure to keep this record is not less than $100 nor more than $500.

You can save yourself and garagemen time and trouble by showing the identification card which is furnished FREE with our guarantee title policy. This card contains all the necessary information for the garage man. It is evidence that you are the owner of the car and will be so recognized by every garage man.

A policy will reduce your theft insurance. It will also help trace your car if stolen.

The cost of our guarantee title policy, including the necessary identification cards, is only $1.00.

Send us your name and address now. We will mail you an application and you will be prepared.

W. F. Cummings, the well known engineer and contractor, has made a fine record. His work is praised all over the country.

Sanitary Trustee William J. Healy is the father of the Orleans street bridge—the greatest improvement ever made by the city of Chicago on the Chicago river. Mr. Healy, while Alderman from the Eighteenth ward, fought week in and week out until he secured the passage of an ordinance and appropriation for this much needed structure. When completed it will be one of the greatest bascule bridges in the United States.

The Joseph Triner Company has done much for the health of the people. Its products are praised by all who have used them.

C. A. Bickett, the well known and highly respected president of the Bickett Coal and Coke Company, although still a young man, has led a very active life and has been a potent figure in the business world for many years. Whether as president of the Chicago Bearing Metal Company, the Bickett Coal and Coke Company, or as a director of the Fort Dearborn National Bank, he has won the high regard of the business public.

Patrick A. Nash is making a great record on the Board of Review.

Ben J. Short, the popular lawyer, would make a great judge.

Francis J. Houlihan, the well known attorney, is frequently being mentioned by his big army of friends and admirers for a seat on the bench. Mr. Houlihan is one of Chicago's ablest and most successful lawyers and would make splendid judge.

County Recorder Joseph F. Haas is making a fine public record. The people are satisfied with his official acts.

Matt Aller would make a good City Treasurer. He is a sterling Democrat and has worked hard to put many good men into public office.

Albert J. Hopkins, who made one of the best United States senators Illinois ever had, would make a great governor.

Repeal the rotten Civil Service laws and give the soldier boys jobs.

The McAvoy Company is manufacturing a temperance drink that bids fair to become very popular. It is called "Alpha" and its strengthening and invigorating qualities are much praised. The McAvoy company is also producing de-alcoholized Malt Marrow, which is universally popular.

Charles H. Lamson is one of Chicago's greatest paving experts.

Judge Frank Johnston, Jr., is making a fine record on the Circuit Court bench.

George L. Schein, the well known lawyer, who numbers his friends by the thousand, would make a fine judge. Mr. Schein has no ambition in this direction, it is said, but his ability, fairness and legal experience well fit him for judicial honors.

John B. Knagat of 72 West Washington street is one of the leaders in the real estate world.

Who gets the benefit of the Public Service Departments Utility extractions?

Edward W. Everett, the well known lawyer, is frequently talked of for congress by his many political friends. He is said to have no ambition in this direction, but his popularity would cause his election to almost any office he was nominated for.

The famous Terrace Garden is now one of Chicago's distinct features. A trip to the Morrison Hotel where the beautiful restaurant is located always means a return visit.
